

The Queenslander Pictorial.

WITH THE BRITISH TROOPS
ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

Loading a big howitzer.

Central House, Pyrae

WOMEN OF THE DISTRICT WHO COMPLETED THE FARM WORK—
STANDING IN LINE AT THE FARM HOUSE.

WOMEN OF THE DISTRICT, SITTING—THE WOMEN WHO COMPLETED THE FARM WORK.

HOW WOMEN ARE DOING MEN'S WORK IN ENGLAND

THE WOMAN OF THE DISTRICT

EARLY MORNING MEETING AT THE DISTRICT HOUSE

THE WOMAN OF THE DISTRICT AT THE HOUSE

WITH THE BRITISH BIG GUNS ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

Central Press Photo.

A big howitzer in action.

M. Asquith, the Premier, looking at captured German ammunition.

Among the Islands of Torres Straits.

Spearing Play.

Turtle catching—a prize on deck of the "Herald"

Thos. J. A. P. O'Connell, photographer.

INVALID SOLDIERS RETURN TO BRISBANE.

The long line of men with returned invalid soldiers coming down Edward St from Central Station.

The welcome of citizens at the 'Courier' corner.

10-11-14

1ST SIGNAL COMPANY OF THE A.I.F. IN ENGLAND.

—Tolson photo.

28TH BATTALION IN ENGLAND.

—Tolson photo.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON TEA AT THE TOWNHALL, BANGOR, WALES.

The British the most of camp was situated in North Wales to help the 4th Division, provided that the guests may "watching to get."

—C. W. Colquhoun photo.

MOVING THE WIND FOR THE 1ST.

Before the big American gun small machine gun was used to determine the position in the same way of atmosphere through which the shells are sent to the right in the night.

The Roll of Honour.

QUEENSLAND CASUALTIES
AT THE FRONT.

W. H. KAT,
Killed in action.

PTE. B. O. BULLOCK,
Killed in action.

PTE. B. A. JAMESON,
Died of Wounds.

PTE. W. GUYER,
Died of Wounds.

PTE. E. S. FALCONER,
Killed in action.

PTE. F. P. BARTON,
Missing.

2nd LIEUT. A. D.
WYNDHAM,
Killed in action.

PTE. C. GARRARD,
Died of Wounds.

PTE. W. E. KACE,
Killed in action.

PTE. J. C. SPENCE,
Killed in action.

PTE. J. H. INGHAM,
Killed in action.

PTE. T. R. PHIL,
Killed in action.

PTE. D. MOWBRAY,
Killed in action.

PTE. J. WINDHAM,
Died of Wounds.

PTE. H. F. DILLERA,
Killed in action.

PTE. J. S. CLARKE,
Killed in action.

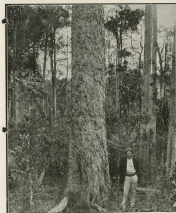

PTE. J. A. BALLANTYNE,
Killed in action.

PTE. S. F. BARRISGILL,
Killed in action.

PTE. J. O'BRIEN,
Killed in action.

The Peels (Acacia robusta).

The Boringia (Acacia robusta).

TWO NOTABLE QUEENSLAND SCENES—THE "BORA" AND "BORA" STOPS. (F. E. FRENCH photo.)

